Design Brief

Meet Emily, a vibrant 30-year-old with an innate love for dogs. Having grown up surrounded by furry companions, Emily has developed an exceptional understanding of canine behavior and needs. Recently, after noticing the bustling pace of her neighborhood and the number of working professionals with beloved pets, Emily has decided to combine her passion for animals with her entrepreneurial spirit. She envisions starting a pet care business that provides pet walking and sitting business that offers a personalized and reliable service for pet owners in her community. Emily is determined to create a brand that stands out. She believes that providing a warm, trustworthy, and professional service is essential. She aims to build a clientele by offering tailored animal care services, ensuring the happiness, health, and safety of each furry client. Having embarked on this journey, Emily seeks assistance in establishing her business. She requires marketing materials to promote her services within the neighborhood and beyond. She envisions a modern, inviting brand image that resonates with pet owners and conveys her commitment to their pets' well-being.

Emily understands the power of professional design in making a memorable impression. She values creativity and seeks visually appealing materials that effectively communicate her business's reliability and dedication to excellent pet care. Her vision is to create a cohesive brand identity that reflects her love for dogs and her business's commitment to providing top-notch services. Emily has settled on the name 'Refined Retreat Pet Services'. Emily is licensed & insured.
